UNITED STATES CURRENCY

The Property of a New York Collector

As we predicted in our 32nd catalog, interest in our national currency has increased considerably during the past year. There is a strong and constant demand far choice and interesting material and the rarer varieties repeatedly sell at record prices. The estimates following each lot can be considered a true reflection of current market value.

DEMAND NOTES

The Demand Notes were authorized by Acts of Congress, July 17, 1861 and August 5, 1861 and are dated August 10, 1861. All were issued prior to April 1, 1862 and are payable at New York, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis and Cincinnati. They are the only notes without the seal of the United States Treasury. All are Very Rare and seldom found in nice condition.

206 — $5. Payable at Philadelphia. Good to V. Good. Few unimportant pin holes. A fairly clean and definitely acceptable specimen. Catalogs at $50.00 in Fine condition. ($30.00)
207 — $10. Payable at Philadelphia. Abt. Good. Few pin holes, mostly at the left end. Not torn and mended as usually found. Worthy of a home in any collection. Catalogs at $75.00 in Fine condition. ($40.00)
208 — $20. Payable at New York. Strictly Very Good, but mended upon the reverse at several creases. A clean, attractive note that unfortunately was torn due to repeated creasing. Of the most extreme rarity. Catalogs at $350.00 in Fine condition. ($200.00)

The $10 Legal Tender notes of the Series 1869-80 have long been popularly called "Jackass" notes because of the small eagle on the lower center obverse. This eagle, when inverted, resembles a donkey's head.
